

Kris grew up in a rural area in Minnesota, She moved to California when she was 22 to be a nanny. Her family was poor and Kris worked from the time she was 13. She went on to Crown College; a small Bible college outside of Minneapolis. With the help of grants and scholarships, and working at McDonalds and Wendy's in the summer, Kris was able to attend for 1 1/2 years.

Looking for options she landed in Palm Springs, California and worked as a nanny for a pastor. She married at 23, had a daughter at 28 and was divorced by 31. At 32, she went back to college and received her Bachelor's Degree in Organizational Leadership from Biola University. Kris worked in the country club industry for 20 years in membership, events and administration.

She married her second husband, Greg, in January 2017, and they discovered Prescott and moved her in 2019, purchasing Amish Home Décor — with no former furniture experience — in April 2022. Greg and Kris have 3 children; Dean (33) who is married to Devyn, Shane (32) who is married to Brianna and Hannah (30). They have a granddaughter (Ava) and a grandson (Graylan)

Kris believes in faith, family and freedom. She enjoys camping, off-roading and riding motorcycles with her husband. They have three dogs, Hobbs, Molly and Bo.
