

Morgan Swift

Morgan was born in New Mexico however moved throughout the southern states until landing in Las Vegas, Nevada. Completing college at the University of Las Vegas, Nevada with a degree in Art History and an internship with the Guggenheim Museum, New York, she and her husband decided to move their new family to Arizona in 2005. Leaving Sin City behind, for what was at the time, a more rural life in Queen Creek, Arizona, they ultimately fell in love with the Prescott Quad-Cities area and moved in 2014.

Married for 20 years, Morgan has homeschooled and graduated her 2 boys. She has stayed very involved in community during this time; holding a seat on the School Board for Willow Creek Charter School, co-founding and administrating a large homeschool co-op group (Prescott Quad-Cities Homeschool Co-op), leading a large homeschool community (Arizona Homeschool Charter Yavapai), continuing to teach Art History and running a small painting business, Morgan Swift Designs. She is also currently the Media Director for the local non-profit, House of Hope 316.

As she and her husband approach a new season as empty nesters, she is excited to devote more time to local organizations, ministry, and a new career.
