

Sergeant at Arms Position Description

Sergeant at Arms is an officer appointed position by the President of RWOP. Her job is to get the audience seated for the meeting in a timely fashion, once seated, she is to provide the membership administrative rules and housekeeping notes. She is formally charged with maintaining good order and discipline of the membership during the meeting, this includes managing any members or guests who are overly rowdy or disruptive.