

Sue Tatar Bio

Sue spent her young years moving with her family (Navy) from the USA to Europe and back...high school and college in Colorado, then living in Pittsburgh, PA, while her husband went to Pitt – then to So. California for 40 years. She retired from her CPA practice in June 2022. She has been the Treasurer of RWOP for the past three years, and 2024 is her fourth and final year. She and her husband, Ron, moved to Prescott in 2018 and love this community. She enjoys travel, off-roading in their Jeep, hiking, pickleball, supporting local businesses, QCCC, and the strong conservative community that is Prescott.
